MUELLER, Director of Federal 17 Bureau of Investigation, 18 Defendants. 19 20 Each of the undersigned certifies that he or she has read either the handbook entitled "Dispute Resolution Procedures in the Northern District of California," or the specified portions of the ADR 22 Unit's Internet site <www.adr.cand.uscourts.gov>, discussed the available dispute resolution 23 options provided by the court and private entities, and considered whether this case might benefit 241 from any of them. Here, the parties agree that referral to a formal ADR process will not be 251 beneficial because this mandamus action is limited to plaintiffs' request that this Court compel 26 defendants to adjudicate the applications for adjustment of status. 27 Given the substance of the action and the lack of any potential middle ground, ADR will only serve to multiply the proceedings and unnecessarily tax court resources. Accordingly, pursuant to Parties' Request for ADR Exemption C 07-3957 JSW 1

1	ADR L.R. 3-3(c), the parties request the case be removed from the ADR Multi-Option Program
2	and that they be excused from participating in the ADR phone conference and any further formal
